Duty of Care, Ours and Yours

The Australian & New Zealand Trauma Society (ANZTS) (formerly Australasian Trauma Society) is committed to providing a safe and healthy environment for all Trauma 2022 Conference participants. Our decisions and preventive measures will be guided by the requirements and recommendations of the Australian Federal, State and local health authorities. We are working with the Brisbane Convention & Exhibition Centre on implementing preventative measures to reduce the potential spread of the COVID-19 virus at the Trauma 2022 Conference. Preventive measures include:

- Encourage all participants to wear a mask during the conference, except for when consuming food and drinks
- Maintain physical distancing where possible
- Apply hand sanitiser regularly.

The responsibility for a safe and healthy event environment (Duty of Care) is shared among the event organizer, venues and every participant. All Trauma 2022 Conference participants are expected to adhere to and abide by the safety precautions ANZTS is implementing to protect against the spread of COVID-19.

As part of your Duty of Care responsibilities, you should not attend the Trauma 2022 Conference if you:

- are experiencing, or within the 10 days prior, have experienced signs and symptoms of COVID-19.
- believe that you may have been exposed to a confirmed or suspected case of COVID-19.
- have been diagnosed with COVID-19 and are not yet cleared as non-contagious by the health care team responsible for your treatment.

Conference attendees should self-monitor for signs and symptoms of COVID-19 and are asked to contact the ANZTS Professional Conference Organisers at atsconference@theassociationspecialists.com.au if they experience symptoms of COVID-19 within 10 days after the Trauma 2022 Conference. Should any positive cases be reported within the 10-day timeframe, Organisation will communicate this information to all registered participants. Any private health or personal data received by ANZTS will be treated as confidential.

Please note that by checking the box during the online registration process, you agree to adhere to the precautions and policies above and understand that you are knowingly and freely assuming all risks related to illness and infectious diseases, such as COVID-19, by attending this event. You understand that refusal to adhere to these policies and abide by these precautions may result in immediate removal from the event and cancellation of the registration, without receiving a refund.

*All policies are subject to change. Should changes be made, a notification will be sent to all registered attendees.
